        ii. Fundraising/Travel Committee: Brittany Valenza, Jess Zweigenthal
        iii. Assistant Registrar: Meghan Cherubino

2) Election Contingency Plan
    a. Discussion occurred around a contingency plan if a Board President isn't elected. Discussions will continue on what will occur if that ends up being the case.

3) Finance Items
    a. Petty Cash is needed for rec soccer in regards to selling snacks and beverage items. The amount was approved by the board.
    b. The board also approved to move a portion of the funds in the checking account over to the money market account.

4) Rec Soccer Items
    a. Update was provided by Kelli on photo day that was held on 5/17/25.
    b. Snacks will be sold from the office to families and players.
    c. There was discussion around whether to send a letter to the town in regards to the food truck situation. It was decided that we should hold off on a letter to the town until later this summer.

5) Conduct Items
    a. Angelo brought forth to the board potential issues in regards to behavior occurring within the club. The allegations were brought forth by a member of the club. After discussion with the board, it was noted that none of the issues mentioned were brought forth to any board member this season. With very limited information provided to Angelo regarding these allegations, there is nothing to further pursue at this time.
    b. There was also discussion in regards to fees for tournaments. It was mentioned that fees for boys tournaments are paid for by the soccer club while the girls tournaments are not. This is inaccurate information and it was confirmed by the club Treasurer to be inaccurate.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned by Al Angelo at 10:00pm.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Angelo Paglialonga, Interim Secretary.
